MR. W. A. DRISCOLL,
County Superintendent

On the first of August Mr. Driscoll will have completed twenty years as head of the Montgomery County Schools. During that period many honors have been bestowed upon him by his fellow educators. But we feel sure that Mr. Driscoll treasures more the great esteem of all his boys and girls than any of the high elective offices that he has held.

Truly the progress of the schools of our County reflect the stature of this great friend of ours.

MR. O. R. EDGINGTON, our Superintendent and friend, who has taken a sincere interest in each one of us; guiding us in important decisions, helping us select our careers, and finding opportunities for us in the fields of our choice

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

We remember when we first entered high school in the year 1949. Our triumphs and troubles then were small ones compared to those we have experienced this year; but from Freshman perspective nothing could ever be more important! Not only our special doings but our regular money-making projects took on an added significance because we looked at them through Freshman eyes!

By the time we were Sophomores we had gained a little in CONFIDENCE, and we needed it, for our subjects and our jobs were both tougher. We learned things every day. We remember the ordeal of selecting our rings and our class pennant, those things which are symbols of our class as a club, as a unit. They meant a great deal to us, and still do.

Last year we began to learn the meaning of RESPONSIBILITY. We did many things for the first time, handling concessions at games, giving a big dance, producing a play, and making extensive plans for making money. We learned to work together for a common cause. We remember more than anything the responsibilities we took upon our shoulders, and what an odd feeling of independence it gave us.

Experience has been called the best teacher. It is gained by doing things oneself. That is what we are getting now. We have newer responsibilities, increased confidence to carry them, and we are fast acquiring EXPERIENCE in many fields. The good times we have had here may be far surpassed by what the future holds for us, but what we have experienced here will live in our minds, hearts, and memories.

SIGNED: The Seniors

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

My, it's nice to sit and read the newspaper and reminisce after a long day's work. Wanda's experience as editor of our annual is helping her greatly now. She is editor of our daily newspaper. I notice a big ad in the advertising section for the Kern Masonry-Construction Company. Jim built the constructions on the air field where Bob Dixon is a pilot for rocket ships and Betty Blackburn is stewardess.

There's another news item about that billionaire, Dave Palsgrove. He always had a knack for making money in school. Dale Landes is head engineer in his company.

Don Mayer was Johnny-on-the-Spot by taking pictures of that outstanding stock car driver, Pat Fitch, doing her daring car sommersaults. Don has taken over Powell Studios and is doing a thriving business.

Gracious, those temperamental Broadway actresses are feuding again. It seems as though Sharon Amend and Jo Chrisman can't agree. Their lawyer, Ray Mitchell, will soon get rich from all their law suits.

It seems so wonderful that a lot of the Class of '53 are making the news. Take for instance, the new hospital has just been completed and it is practically staffed with all '53 graduates. Nancy Blome is head doctor of the children's ward, and Joretta Barr is the Supervisor of Ward A. Jo Dyke and Pat Jay are in Timbucktoo as representative nurses from the United States. Pat Kern and Jo Denlinger have practices in Englewood and Clayton. They are also part-time teachers at the hospital. Gay Fravert is the head psychiatrist in her department.

I wonder what's on television tonight. Bob Mills is announcing the Olympic games. He will interview the brilliant American coach, Larry Binkley, and the All American star, Jack Josselyn. Sylvia Waymire will tell bedtime stories to the children at eight-thirty. She always had such a soft and sweet voice. America's most popular disc jockey, Jo Coleman, is presenting a musical show with such famous names as Shirlie Sparks, the blues singer, and dancer; Roger Weaver, who took over the Arthur Murray studios. The Brinker dance band was rated No. 1 in the country this year. Charlene always played the trumpet in school. Jerry Collins, the musical arranger for Spike Jones, will be there also.

Lois Miller owns a big chain of restaurants and Bill Kelley is the head chef. How well I remember that Bill always liked food!

Mark Brooks is entering the Indianapolis 500 for the tenth time. He has been first place winner ever since his first race. Of course, he has the two best mechanics in the business-Bill Borden and Ronnie Harper.

Bill Weist and Walter Harriss own all the filling stations in Ohio. And to think, they got their start in Englewood as gas attendants.

The "Newer Look" has come in this spring. Barbara Smith is the head buyer for the Bosron and Sellers Department Store. Carol and Shirley have come a long way from the little dress shoppe they had twenty-five years ago. The Powers Models, of which Marty Hoersting is one, will be in the spring fashion show.

Gene Riser, the mayor of the city, has passed a bill for new police uniforms. Pat Craft, head of the Policewomen Dept., got this passed by influencing the mayor's secretary, Shirley Sammons.

The two competing oil tycoons, Rabold and Fenton, are still arguing about the rights of the Ballangee Trucking Firm. Don has a company in Oklahoma and Fred's business is in Texas. Harry and Bob started out by driving gravel trucks years ago.

Carole Carles is the new Secretary of the Treasury. She always was capable of handling the class money. We even have representatives in the service. Charles Koch rose to the rank of Fleet Admiral, and Bob Jones is Rear Admiral. They are going on an expedition to the North Pole this fall. Pat Cruea is the WAC Training teacher at Wright Field.

I see where Mary Gray owns a child nursery. Marcia Ware was advertising for a daytime babysitter so the nursery will solve her problem.

The farm report looks favorable; the farmers had a good crop in everything this year. Bud Wetzel and Don Roberts are partners in the farm implement business. Don Stutz's poultry farm has lowered its price on eggs.

Randolph School has hired three teachers from our class. Eudora Burroughs is the new kindergarten teacher, and Dolores Wright teaches Latin. Jo Spears is the French teacher. I remember how they used to tease her about her southern drawl.

The Lodge and Swartz Beauty Salon is moving to a new location. The Beery Plumbing Shop will take over their old store. Sue Marshall's pet shop is right next to Paul's store.

How surprising it is to find so many of my classmates names mentioned in this edition. I am presently writing a feature article for this paper under the byline of Judy Emerick. It is to be a series on the treasured memories of these very students as we were back in 1953 at old Randolph High.

A SENIOR DREAM

The night was typical of Indian Summer with its warm breezes and clear, starry skies. To those who came early for seats on the fifty-yard line, it seemed as if nothing could intrude into the peaceful melancholy of the evening. The school building to their right was filled with memories of the past. They were dreaming, oh so joyfully, of the present and the future.

It had been just a few days ago that these students had officially entered their last year of high school. They were now seniors! Boys and Girls yesterday-- Men and Women tomorrow--and today? Today was their senior year, filled with unbelievable joys, and yes, the sharp pains and aches that go together to make growing up. The noise and happy confusion of the increasing crowd didn't seem to bother this group of dreamers. . .

". . . and this year I shall study, really take advantage of the wealth of information available to me, for tomorrow will be born the real me, independent and grown-up. I shall be a lawyer, nurse, mechanic, an important link in our nation's production chain, a father, a mother; yes, I will be a responsible citizen so I must study today, study and thus prepare. . .

. . . but there will be times for fun, times to lay aside our books, as in the realm of sports. These senior boys will play their hearts out in games such as football, basketball and baseball. With three years behind them of hard practice, they seek their reward of victory. Win, lose, or draw, they will gain much in comradeship and fair play; and their classmates in the stands will also have gained much by good sportsmanship and faithful support. . .

. . . and we will have our romantic moments . . . the traditionally romantic Homecoming Ceremonies honoring especially the senior members of the football team. A night of senior magic--open convertibles containing smiling, waving, excited royalty; a royal kiss that will produce sparks (of gossip, that is) through the crowd, ana then a dance for all within the warmth of the school.

When snowflakes are falling lightly and the air is refreshingly crisp, we shall transform our gym into a winter wonderland and dance to the strings of "White Christmas". . . and maybe, on one of these madic moonlit nights that certain boy and girl will make promises of "forever and ever". . .

. . . . and then in a twinkling, winter will have spent itself and the sleepy world will awake to the coming of spring. "In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of"--well, it had better be of studies with spring exams just around the corner. . . and how we will work! Paper drives, bake sales, stationery sales, candy sales; we'll sell anything and everything; then modestly admit, "Super salesmen are we, the Seniors of '53." But it will have a purpose all this rushing about, for we plan to climax our las last year with a trip. We shall have a wonderful time together. Friendships will be close and intense as if each realizes that soon we will be parted."

But think not of that, you dreamers in the stadium. The teams are warming up on the field. The game will soon begin. Hurry on with your dreaming.

". . . and the Senior Play, what fun we'll have working together, and the fame we'll receive, no doubt some will be heard to say, "if Hollywood could only see us now"! . . . The Bobcat '53, our story . . It will capture in pictures and words our spirit and preserve it for years to come . . . and the Junior-Senior Prom--though the two classes may have been rivals in the past, this will be forgotten as the Juniors pay tribute to the '53 Seniors with a breathtakingly beautiful dance. We shall appreciate their efforts more than they may know. . . and then inevitably, that dark cloud on the horizon--Senior Exams--Midnight oil will burn as we cram like mad. But storm clouds always pass and beyond the blue horizon lie Baccalaureate and Commencement . . . our diplomas . . . strangely, we feel sad. We look at the responsibilities we must now accept and our faces are grave as we march. Ah, but the world awaits our conquest. Our hearts are filled with ambition, determination, and youthful anticipation. Now we are happy. The ringing of our laughter is a promise for the future, our future bright with our dreams." There's the whistle starting the game. Stop dreaming. The game on the field, as the game of life, will be over too soon. Take advantage of every golden minute and may God be with you.

The Class of '54 plunged into the "depths of learning" on a September morning in 1950. Our advisor was Mr. Lamb, and Bob Dixon was the leader of our class. We were kept busy that year having parties, hay rides, and sponsoring all sorts of money-making projects. The hardest part of our first year was learning to be Freshmen, but soon it was

1951, and we were Sophomores. We had two advisors this year, Miss Corwin and Mr. Cultice. With their help and with Joan Turner as our class president, we managed to sponsor our first dance, "The Shanghai Ching Ding," and to keep swelling our treasury with more projects. We also helped cheer the basketball team on to their consolation victory in the district tournament. What? Another year gone by? Yes, it's now

1952, and at last we are Juniors--a sure sign we're growing up. Our class is small--forty-nine to be exact, but we can still make ourselves heard. Our proof of this is our class play, "The Little Dog Laughed," our magazine sales, the Valentine Dance, and our beautiful prom. Mrs. Brumbaugh, Mr. Cultice, and Jerry Tschudi have led us through this year safely, and now we seem to be doing something--growing up. But we promise you that 1953 will be the wonderful beginning of a terrific end, to the

Last year when Mr. Barger became our keeper, he laid in a stock of headache pills. That really proved prophetic because he had charged to him, ninety some potential headaches. Under our invincible (that's what he said) leader, Bruce Motter, bake sales, paper drives, and other campaigns ended successfully. The class party was the only depletion of our treasury so our finances suffered only slightly. Genevieve Burroughs was second in command, and she proved capable under fire. The guardian of the Freshman Fort Knox was Judy Deeter. Our scribbler of the minutes was Mitzi Schroeder.

We rebounded from the summer vacation into the rooms of Miss Corwin and Miss Miller, and later Mr. Lancaster, who took Miss Corwin's place. They had talked with Mr. Barger and were equipped like keepers of the U. S. arsenal. When the smoke of our election cleared, Mitzi Schroeder was our president, Dan Baker had snitched the title of vice president, Marilyn Brumbaugh was chained to a secretary's desk, and Pat Ullery had been filibustered into a treasurer's job. Money-making projects started again. These included two of the most profitable paper drives we've had. Our dance, The Harvest Moon Hop, would be classified as a success by all who attended. After each project our financial status rose. If the rapid swelling of our treasury continues, we will have no fear of losing our trip to Washington as Seniors in '55. You'll be hearing more next year from the

"ANYTHING YOU CAN DO, WE CAN DO BETTER"

All through our first year of high school we have been honored by a great number of scholastic and extracurricular firsts.

We have the honor of being the richest Freshman class ever at Randolph.

To be able to keep better order during class meetings, we have formed the first class constitution.

We became better acquainted with our classmates from Clayton at a reception given for them in May of last year. It was the first reception of this kind ever given by a Freshman class.

Also we have in our midst the first Freshman to write a feature column for the Shamrock.

Added to our numerous accomplishments we have been the first Freshman class to ever sponsor a dance.

Even with all these firsts behind us, we're going to continue to make school history. So watch out for the

VARSITY CHEER LEADERS

The Randolph cheerleaders are a big, big part of the famous Randolph Spirit. Not only do they lead the crowd in cheering for the team, but also they make posters, sell tickets and programs, and generally promote sportsmanship. We are proud that these girls represent Randolph! These girls received the top honor of the cheerleaders--the cheerleading tournament trophy which is the goal of all varsity cheerleaders.

FOOTBALL 1952

BOB PEFFLEY
Guard

The 1952 Varsity Football season was another one of high achievement, honor, and glory. Our Bobcats were crowned co-champions of the little Buckeye League along with arch rival, Brookville. It was the fifth year out of seven that the 'Cats have either shared or won the title outright. This is a record that not many teams can equal or better. The 'Cats won 7 and lost 2.

TOM MARTIN
Guard

Much of the credit for our success must be given to our fine coaching staff. New head coach, Carl Adkins, did a magnificent job in his first head coaching position. He came to us from Brookville where he was an assistant coach last season. He was very ably supported by assistant coaches, Gene Cultice and Bill Yensel. Wiley Taylor did a grand job as a scout, which is a very important part of football.

The men on the team played like true competitors. It was team play that won. Each one will long be remembered for his Randolph spirit and fight.

The season opened on a highly successful note as we beat our traditional opening rival, Tipp City 19-7.

Jefferson was one of our more important league games and the 'Cats came roaring from behind in the final quarter with two touchdowns to win 15-7.

RONNIE HARPER

We got revenge against Madison and edged them 20-13 in a thrilling contest. Centerville provided the opposition for our annual homecoming game as the Bobcats rolled to a 27-0 triumph.

Then came two weeks of famine. Arch rival Brookville masked us 27-6 in a surprisingly one-sided game. Butler won a 32-18 decision from us.

The Bobcats rebounded in fine style at this point. Beavercreek felt the Bobcats' sting in the tune of 32-12 in an important league contest.

TOM BOWERS
Tackle

West Carrollton was the victim of a last minute touchdown as they fell to defeat 14-7. The final game saw the Bobcats battling Germantown for the co-championship with Brookville. Randolph rolled to a 19-6 victory and the co-championship.

The Junior High football team won one and lost four during the 1952 season. The Bobkittens defeated Centerville in their last game of the campaign. Earlier they dropped decisions to Madison, Beavercreek, Jefferson and Brookville. The games were all hard fought. Although they only won one game, the boys gained some valuable experience that should help them very much in their varsity play.

Head coach, Jack Corle, and his assistant, Jerry Haley, deserve a lot of credit for their all-out effort to make a winning team out of the Bobkittens. The efforts of the coaches and the team were not in vain. Congratulations for your hard work.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Our Bobcats again brought glory to the school for the second consecutive year. They displayed the pep and spirit so well-known at Randolph. We are proud of them and proud of the way they played as a team, and not as individuals for our magnificent honors. They were a fine group of young men and they will long be remembered for their accomplishments and their clean, spirited sportsmanship.

Mr. Yensel, in his first season as head basketball coach, did a grand job in that position. He was an inspiration to the young men. They formed a sharp, top-notch combination, all working together for victory and showing that they were proud of their school. We appreciate what they have done for Randolph.

The 'Cats opened the season at Eaton. They rocked the Golden Eagles 59-42. Verona was the next opponent, and the 'Cats came from behind to beat the Vikings 54-48. Farmersville was our first M.C.L. opponent, and the Bobcats rolled to a 64-41 triumph. Wayne, rugged cage rival, defeated us the following night 39-34 in our only league loss of the season. Centerville provided the opposition for our first home game and sweet revenge for last year was ours 63-34. Beavercreek's powerful Beavers gave us our only loss of the season on the home floor 54-50. We then defeated West Carrollton's tough Pirates 54-44 and Madison's rugged Rams 58-57 in a double overtime to complete our basketball activities for 1952.

The Bobcats started the new year on the right foot by beating rival Phillipsburg 74-34 on the Bolts' home floor. Tipp City fell to the 'Cats 47-35 the following night. Arch rival Brookville visited Bobcatland and left on the short end of a rousing 81-57 score. Northeastern's tough Jets trimmed the boys 56-51 in our long jaunt into Clark County. The team rebounded in fine style again West Elkton, Preble County League Champs. Jefferson fell victim next to the Bobcat attack 54-40. Butler pulled a major upset on the Bobcats 48-47 the next night. Monroe of Preble County was the victim of a new school scoring record as the 'Cats rolled to an 82-63 triumph. The 'Cats moved into a three-way first place tie for the M.C.L. lead by rapping Germantown 57-46, handing the Cardinals their first league loss of the season. Lewisburg fell before our onslaugh 57-42, and Dixie was blasted 72-50.

The 'Cats tied with Germantown and Wayne for the Montgomery County League Championship.

The Bobcats were seeded in the upper bracket of the montgomery County Tournament. Our first round opponent was Centerville. The Elks staged a magnificent battle before falling 64-45. Dixie fought with the tenacity of a pack of bulldogs before the 'Cats posted a 41-35 triumph. Phillipsburg proved an easy victim to the Bobcats, falling 54-35 in the semi-finals. The Bobcats ripped Madison 53-34 for the championship. It was the second consectuive year that we won the Tournament Crown and the second time in the history of the school.

The Bobcats completed the regular season and County Tournament with 19 wins and 4 losses.

In addition to team honors won, several members of the squad received outstanding individual recognition. Jack Josselyn, Larry Binkley, and Dave Palsgrove were voted to the All-County Team; Larry and Dave made the All-Tournament Team; and Larry won the award for being the tournament's most valuable player.

BOBCATS ROAR

THROUGH TWO TOURNAMENTS

The Bobcats marched into the tough Southwestern District Class B Basketball Tournament, as Montgomery County Tournament Champions for the second straight year. They were determined to make a good showing. The 'Cats picked up momentum with an opening round victory over Xenia Woodrow Wilson, 61-45, and moved into the quarterfinal round. West Elkton was the opponent, and they proved to be much tougher this time than they were during regular season play. They staged a terrific fourth quarter rally, but we stayed on top to win 46-44. Then came the never-to-be-forgotten semifinal clash with Xenia East's talented Panthers. The game was see-saw back and forth throughout. We led by two points, but with 12 seconds remaining in the game Xenia East collected a field goal and a free throw to go ahead by one. Through 12 heart-throbbing seconds we watched the 'Cats work the ball up the floor. And to our joyful relief, Jack Josselyn scored the winning field goal with three seconds remaining to give us a very welcome 53-52 victory. Spurred on by this tremendous success, we came from behind midway in the third quarter to go ahead of Wayne in the All Montgomery County District Finals to win a convincing 46-37 decision. This was our first Southwestern District Basketball Championship in the history of the school.

The 'Cats went into the Class B Regional Tournament at Troy full of pep, fire, and spirit. Versailles, the other team from the Miami Valley, was our semifinal opponent. We rolled to a 61-44 victory over the Tigers. Then in the Regional championship game we were stopped and convincingly beaten, 62-37, by Mariemont's magnificent Warriors.

We were only one game from State Tournament and three from the State Title at the time of our bowing out. This is farther than we've ever gone before in the bid for the state championship. Everyone felt a wonderful pride in our team. We knew our Bobcats were fighting hard and well all the way. Their efforts were not in vain. They were true champions.

Larry Binkley was a unanimous choice on the All District Team. Dave Palsgrove and Jack Josselyn were also named to the honor squad. Larry pulled down the highest individual honor a Randolph player has ever received when he was selected on the Class B All State Second Team.

Congratulations team, coaches, cheerleaders, and fans for work well done!

Activities

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

Take a gal with psychology on her mind, add a mischievous kid brother, plus an ambitious father, and the answer is a full evening's entertainment. Psychological reasoning led the cook and bird lover to the altar and patched up the many quarrels it started in the first place. "The Little Dog Laughed" was presented on November 20 and 21 by the Junior Class.

Foreground: JoAnne Stonerock, Chuck Woodbury.
Background: Kathryn Brumbaugh, Bob Dixon, Jo Turner, Jerry Tschudi.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The course of true love never runs smooth as in the case of "Our Miss Brooks" and the basketball coach. The major difference between them and marital bliss was the gym. Each had a good reason for wanting it, and both were equally determined. But with help from their interested students, everything finally turned out for the best. This enjoyable comedy play was presented by the Senior Class of 1952.

HOMECOMING

On the evening of October 3, 1952, not only were the fans watching the Randolph-Centerville game, but also a queen, king, and their court. The chosen queen was Wanda Galloway; king, Larry Binkley; Senior attendant was Betty Blackburn, her escort, Dale Landes; Junior attendant was Jo Ann Turner, her escort, Bob Hansen; Sophomore attendant was Mitzi Schroeder, her escort, Larry Butts; Freshman attendant was Janet Dearth, her escort, Billy Anderson. Crown bearers were Karen Galloway and Tommy Apple.

The lovely queen and handsome king not only reigned over the game, but also the dance afterward. Also taking part in the court festivities were last year's king and queen, Ernie Schultheis and Bonnie Brumbaugh.

HOLIDAY DREAM

The Seniors caught the holiday spirit and transformed it into the atmosphere of "Holiday Dream" which was given on December 27.

The silver snowflakes and stars sprinkled the shining ceiling. The silver tree in the middle was the shimmering highlight. Marshall Reed and his Orchestra furnished the music which we danced to until midnight.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Pictures cannot show the magical night of May 3, 1952. Your trip up the "Stairway To The Stars" was a path sprinkled with celestial beauties and misty stars.

The doorway was a flower-laden trellis with a swinging gate which invited you to come in. You entered a blue and white garden terrace under a pale sky and at once caught the sentimental mood of Johnny Reger's music. The latticed walls of pastel colors which held you within, beckoned you to walk up the lighted stairway.

The hard work put into giving this prom was well worth the effort in giving the Seniors a farewell they will always remember.

Classes

Here at Randolph we are offered a varied curriculum from which to choose our course of study. Whether we intend to go on to college, take a job in business or industry, or become homemakers, we are preparing ourselves for our future life.

Shown here are classroom scenes taken in the commercial room, shop, home economics room, study hall, library, kindergarten, clinic, drivers' training car, gymnasium, and music room.
